

CRNA

Position Requirements:

- Under the general supervision of an anesthesiologist, will provide professional anesthesia services in all hospital areas to all patient populations. And will assist with anesthesia-related medical situations such as airway management and pulmonary ventilation.
- Certification by the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists as a CRNA, Licensure as a Registered Nurse in NYS with five years' experience preferred.
- General, Endo, OB/GYN, Orthopedic, Urology, ENT. MUST be able to do Spinal and Epidural anesthesia.
- Participate in the on-call pool with NO second call.
- Must be motivated, engaged, and committed to providing high-quality care and be operationally driven to achieve optimal productivity and efficiency
- Strong interpersonal communication skills with the ability to interact with all types of individuals within a wide range of personality traits and socioeconomic statuses
- Willingness to work and live in a rural, small community setting; and actively engage with the community

Offer Package Outline:

Competitive starting salary

Hospital Employee

PTO – 240 PTO Hours (includes vacation, personal, sick, and CME) plus seven holidays

Sign-on Bonus $25,000

Tuition Reimbursement $30,000/Year for five years

Moving Expense Allowance up to $10,000

Annual CME allowance of $4,000

Malpractice Insurance

Health & Dental Insurance:

Life Insurance: Amount equal to one-times earnings up to a limit of $150,000 (additional coverage available at employee's expense)

Eligibility to participate in the Medical Center's 403(b) retirement plan

Short & Long-Term Disability Insurance

Want to learn more?

KIM STILES

Healthcare Recruiter

office: (315) 713.5243

mobile: (315) 323.7103

email: kstiles@chmed.org

web: www.claxtonhepburn.org/recruit mail: 214 King Street, Ogdensburg, NY 13669