

Elevate Your Career in a Picturesque Paradise: Join Our Endocrinology Medicine Team in Northern New York

Are you a dedicated Endocrinologist seeking a fulfilling career in a breathtaking location? Look no further than the North Star Health Alliance/North Country Endocrinology, nestled in the heart of Northern New York. Our hospital-employed outpatient practice is seeking a BE/BC provider to join our dynamic team and make a lasting impact on the health and well-being of our diverse patient population. This role offers a perfect balance of professional fulfillment and work-life harmony, allowing you to thrive both in your career and personal life.

A Practice as Exceptional as the Location

At North Star Health Alliance, we're committed to delivering exceptional patient care while fostering a supportive and collaborative work environment. As part of our multidisciplinary team, you'll work alongside 2 advanced practitioners, collaborating to provide comprehensive endocrinology care to the tri-county residents. We're seeking a compassionate, dedicated provider who shares our commitment to delivering the highest level of care.

You'll have the opportunity to contribute to this culture of excellence, making a tangible difference in the lives of our patients while growing professionally.

Live Where Others Vacation
